

Norway House Cree Nation

Election Procedures Act

(Amended & Supported by the People – October 17, 2005)

(Ratified by Chief & Council – October 18, 2005)

NORWAY HOUSE CREE NATION
ELECTION PROCEDURES ACT
-History-
(Revised & Adopted October, 2005)

1. In 1997, Norway House Cree Nation took control of its own Election Procedures and in December, 1997, the people of Norway House Cree Nation adopted an Election Procedures Act which allowed the Norway House Cree Nation to be removed from Section 74 (Election Procedures), of the Indian Act and further assert its right to self-government by taking control of elections for Chief and Council in Norway House.
2. On November 20, 2000, the Supreme Court decision in the Corbiere case came into effect, which decision, among other things, allowed Band Members who were eligible to be electors, and who resided off the Reserve, to vote in elections for Chief and Council.
3. As a result of the Corbiere decision, the Norway House Cree Nation Chief and Council undertook a lengthy review of the December, 1997 Election Procedures Act, which act as written in 1997 already allowed off-Reserve members to vote in elections for Chief and Council.
4. The review of the 1997 Election Procedures Act took place over a period of many months, during which time numerous consultations took place between Chief and Council and members of Norway House Cree Nation and after the completion of a number of drafts, an amended Election Procedures Act was presented to the Norway House Cree Nation Band Membership at three Band meetings.
5. In the amended Election Procedures Act, (May, 2001) Chief and Council, in response to the Corbiere decision, further extended the rights of off-Reserve voters to allow them not only to vote in elections for Chief and Council, but to run for the offices of Chief, and Councillor, and to nominate eligible electors for the offices of Chief and Councillor.
6. At the third public meeting in July of 2001 to deal with the amended Election Procedures Act, a majority of those present when the vote was taken voted to defeat the amended Election Procedures Act in its entirety.
7. Since the Department of Indian Affairs requires a formal vote to be taken in order to amend custom election codes of this nature, the Chief and Council was left with the 1997 provisions of the Corbiere decision.
8. Since the failure to comply with the Corbiere decision would most certainly lead to numerous court challenges to the March, 2002 election, the Chief and Council, in consultation with the Department of Indian Affairs, was obliged to make changes to the 1997 Election Procedures Act. The changes included the deleting of references that were specifically contrary to Corbiere and the adding of provisions, such as the mail-in ballot process, to accommodate off-Reserve membership.

9. December, 1997 Election Procedures Act has been changed so as not to contravene the provisions of Corbiere.
10. The Chief and Council of the Norway House Cree Nation considered it in the best interests of the members of the Norway House Cree Nation and in order to comply with the Corbiere decision to proceed with the March, 2002 election under the 1997 Election Procedures Act, with the changes noted therein.
11. On September 7, 2005, The Council of the Norway House Cree Nation took the Election Procedures Act to the People to present the amendments as proposed. At the meeting, the People proposed and recommended some changes in the form of motions. These changes are noted as per the immediate following two pages titled “Changes to December 1997....”. At this time a vote could not be held as the provisions under Section 10.1 (c) of the Election Procedures Act could not be met.

In accordance with Sections 10.1(d) and 10.1(e), a second meeting was held on October 17, 2005, at which meeting a majority vote of those electors present supported the proposed amendments.

On October 18, 2005, Chief & Council, at their duly convened Council meeting, ratified the amendments to the Norway House Cree Nation Election Procedures Act.

CHANGES TO DECEMBER 1997 NORWAY HOUSE CREE NATION ELECTIONS PROCEDURES ACT AS NECESSITATED BY THE CORBIERE DECISION OF THE SUPREME COURT OF CANADA AND AS PER THE PUBLIC MEETING OF SEPTEMBER 7, 2005.

1. Article 1.1 (a) Changing date for the appointment of the Appeal Committee from thirty (30) days to four months, prior to the date of the election, as a result of the increased time required for the mail-in ballot process, implemented to accommodate the off-Reserve voting.

Delete “who are ordinarily resident in the Norway House Cree Nation Community” from last sentence.
2. Article 1.1(b) (iii) The reference to “ordinarily resident” as a requirement to be a candidate is deleted as the Corbiere decision does not allow a First Nation to discriminate against eligible electors based upon their residency.
3. Article 1.1(g) Again, the reference to “ordinarily resident” is deleted. (See explanation in item 2 of this attachment).
4. Article 1.1 (h) The former Article 1.1(h) now becomes 1.1(g) by virtue of the above deletions.
5. Article 3.3 Changing the time for appointment of the Electoral Officer and the Appeal Committee, from thirty (30) days to four months prior to the date of the election, as a result of the increased time required for the mail-in ballot process, implemented to accommodate the off-Reserve voters.
6. Article 4.1 Extending the period of time for the posting of the notices regarding nominations from seven (7) days up to two (2) months, prior to the date of the nomination meeting, to provide off-Reserve Members sufficient opportunity to participate in the nomination process.

Adding words to provide additional forms of notice regarding the nomination meeting to off-reserve members to allow sufficient opportunity to participate in the nomination process.

Deleting the words “at least” and replacing it with “up to”.

Deleting the word “local” twice from Article 4.1. Adding “aboriginal” before the word “newspapers”.

7. Article 4.2 to 4.6 Adding provisions to the nomination process to allow off-reserve electors to participate in the nomination process.

8. Article 4.12 Deleting the reference to the announcing of the date of the election, being fourteen days from the date of the nomination meeting. This is deleted so as to provide the Electoral Officer with some discretion based on the increased time required for the election process, to accommodate the off-reserve electors under the mail-in ballot process.

9. Article 4.13 Deleting the words “at least” before the word “seven”.

10. Article 5.1 Providing additional wording to give advanced notice to off-reserve members regarding the election process.

12. Article 5.15 (a) Providing additional wording to give notice to off-reserve electors relating to the outcome of the election.

Deleting the word “local” twice from last sentence in 5.15 (a). Adding “aboriginal” before the word “newspapers”.

- 13. Article 6 A completely new provision to deal with the mail-in ballot process.
- 14. Article 8.1 (d) Former Article 8.1 now becomes 9.1 by virtue of the above new provision.
- Removing the reference to “residency provisions”, as the reference to “ordinarily resident” has been deleted from the definition section of this code pursuant to the requirements of the Corbiere decision.
- 15. Schedules “A”, “B” and “C” Completely new provisions to deal with the mail-in ballot process.
